Our spaces will be secured in order of payment received.

If you are selling food, you will be required to provide a hand washing station in your booth and the proper permits for food sales in Amador County <http://www.amadorgov.org/departments/environmental-health/food-program/food-facilities>. Your menu must also be approved by the Society. The menu cannot be changed after approval, as we do not want duplication of food being served. All prices must be displayed in a professional manor. Lettering must be a minimum of 2" high in a clearly visible location. A spot in the Food Truck Court will not be held without a completed rental agreement, and the rental fee paid in full.
